DEVELOPING THE YOUNG WORKFORCE AND SCQF

INCREASES CONFIDENCE & SELF ESTEEM, HELPS RE-ENGAGE LEARNERS
Knowing the level of their learning has proved to increase confidence and help re-engage young people

BRINGS CLARITY TO LEARNING & QUALIFICATIONS
Helps employers, young people, parents and carers understand today's qualifications which is very helpful when recruiting staff and applying for jobs.

PROVIDES EQUALITY OF ALL QUALIFICATIONS & LEARNING
Did you know that National 5s, some National Certificates, SVQs and Modern Apprenticeships as well as other vocationally relevant qualifications such as the Silver Youth Achievement Awards all sit at level 5 on the SCQF?

RECOGNISES WIDER ACHIEVEMENT
More than 11,000 qualifications and learning programmes are recognised by the SCQF

255 different organisations own these qualifications

Programmes owned by organisations such as DofE, Prince's Trust, Youth Scotland & Outward Bound are recognised on the SCQF

RECOGNISES PRIOR LEARNING
Allows young people to have all their learning recognised so they should not have to repeat learning unnecessarily

FACILITATES SENIOR PHASE LEARNING PATHWAYS
Strengthens and consolidates school college partnerships

Supports the planning of learning to suit the individual young person 84% of Qualifications at Level 6 are not Highers -Think of the possibilities!!!

scqf
scottish credit and qualifications framework